

FRIENDS OF
WELLINGTON
STATION

Since 1849, Wellington Station has brought visitors directly into the centre of the town. The station is just a minute's stroll from the Market Square and is an important element of the town centre and in Spring 2017, a group of local volunteers formed a Friends' Group to adopt the Station and begin work to help create a distinctive gateway to the town. Plans include planting and the creation of The Lavender Platform at Platform One & refurbishment and clearance to create The Secret Garden at Platform Three as well as ideas for regenerating the empty buildings to bring PopUps and Events to these historic environs. ## Paul Janczykowski

Supporting the 'Friends', local artist Paul, has created the 'Golden Age of Travel' style poster as seen on this brochure. Paul trained at Birmingham College of Art and has worked in the county all his life. Following retirement Paul began to produce artwork of local landscapes with developing ideas on trains passing through those landscapes. Paul exhibits across Shropshire and his work is sold in The Forge in Bell Street, Wellington.

Go Wellington

Shop | Eat | Walk | Stay

See & Stay

Vintage & Thrift

Pre loved shopping is a very big attractor in the town centre with a popular Vintage & Thrift Trail of eighteen shops for you to discover bargains, delights and treasures.

Cafe Culture

The town centre hosts street food events and has an array of coffee shops, cafes and eateries in and around the town centre.

Independents

Wellington welcomes local entrepreneurs, makers and bakers and we provide town centre help for starting a business here. We operate 'ShopShare' schemes and manage PopUp Markets & Outlets. Come and visit the Business in a Box displays at The Little Business Company, 17 Market Square

www.thelittlebusinesscompany.com

Walking

You can walk from the town centre on eight pre-designed walking circuits and free guided walk maps are available at the Council offices to help you explore the Wrekin Hill and Forest to the south of the town and the gentler slopes to the north, including local nature reserves and industrial heritage. There are free guided walks on Wednesdays and on the 1st/3rd Sundays of the month.

Shop & Eat

"Wellington offers shopping with secret foodie delights, walnut bread, farm eggs, local wines, the freshest veg and much more..."

"From the ancient Shambles in the town centre where dozens of butchers' stalls proliferated to modern day artisan producers, traditional butchers, fresh sea food, greengrocers, a micro-brewery, bakers, makers & more... take a few steps in and around Wellington Market and you can buy (at the best prices) half a dozen fresh farm eggs and home cured bacon, the plumpest sea bream, prime fillet steak and morning baked bread. Aside from the hen's eggs, you can also order duck and quail eggs from Margaret and fill your shopping bag with wines from rural vineyards, just cooked pies, local cheeses, fresh out of the ground veg, locally brewed beer and Shropshire pickles, jams and honey. Stroll into town and discover this 'secret shopping' for yourself."

Life & Style

Renowned for being Shropshire's largest market town with its historic market charter established in 1244 Wellington is home to c28,000 residents, over three hundred businesses and the biggest town centre market in the region. Fascinating history at every step.

WELLINGTON boasts a thousand free car parking spaces, a pedestrianised town centre street network and a well-connected town centre station which transports 630,000 passengers a year. Along with its 4-day a week General Market, Wellington has a 7-day a week Library, striking civic buildings, a bustling Leisure Centre with swimming and exercise for all, a growing Independent & Artisan offering and a fascinating pre-loved Vintage & Thrift shopping trail.

The town also has a famous hill, home to a giant or two with 'The Wrekin' boasting some of the oldest rocks in the British Isles. It is said that a walk up The Wrekin is like a pilgrimage and provides an everlasting memory for those who experience its magic.

WELLINGTON VISITORS MAP

THERE'S PLENTY TO DO IF YOU KNOW WHERE TO LOOK: sample the Edwardian high-life at the National Trust's Sunnycroft, take in a cricket match or a game of golf on the edge of the town or climb The Wrekin for breath-taking views of a dozen counties. You can explore the town and surroundings on two feet or two wheels, aided by an excellent series of walking and cycling guides available at the Town Council Offices.
